NOTIFICATION

Imphal, the 30th June 2026

No. 3/1/2018-DMU/Exam (C)/19 :It is hereby informed to all concerned that candidates appearing for the following examinations:

- GEG-508: Quantitative Techniques in Geography (Geography P.G., 2nd Semester 2026 June) scheduled on Tuesday, 07th July 2026 from 1:00 PM to 4:00 PM, are permitted to use ordinary calculators—i.e., calculators equipped only with basic arithmetic functions (addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division).

The use of such calculators is allowed solely to assist with basic numerical computations and does not compromise the intended difficulty level of the respective question papers.

However, the use of sophisticated calculators (including those with algebraic, statistical, trigonometric, or programmable functions) and any electronic devices with internet connectivity is strictly prohibited.
